

You've got to be on the SQUARE if you are going to build . . . and that's true whether it is a house or a business. Folks who think their customers are suckers don't last long. We know that is true . . . and that is just one of the many reasons why our policy has always been ON THE SQUARE!

Gardiner Baby Arrives in Long Beach

Congratulations were being received Tuesday, May 10, by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Allen Gardiner of 2365 Pacific Coast highway when announcement was made that their first child, a son, was born that day at Los Cerritos Maternity Hospital, Long Beach. Named for both his mother and father the little fellow, who tipped the scales at six pounds and four ounces will be known as Fletcher Allen Gardiner.

Mrs. Gardiner is the former Mary Fletcher, daughter of Mrs. Hallie Fletcher of 2365 Pacific Coast highway and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gardiner, 25834 Lucille avenue.

Time for Pictures
Photographers say the middle of the afternoon is the best time of the day for women to have their pictures taken. Girls under 21 take the best pictures in the morning as the strong light at that time compliments their features.

SILVER CREST REBEKAHS HONOR LODGE OFFICERS

Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge No. 295, was hostess to the other lodges in the district and to many distinguished guests and friends at a reception held in honor of District Deputy President, Winifred Mae Jones, of District 66. Marshal Sadie Tibbet also was honored.

Noble Grand Minerva Keller welcomed the 175 members and guests and introduced the chairman for the evening, Martha Spikes. Honored guests were Minerva Gandy, conductor of the Rebekah Assembly District; Deputy President Hazel Uhrich of District 80, Deputy Grand Masters Otto Kankar, District 98, and James Moxley, District 48.

Deputy Marshal Sadie Tibbet then was escorted and introduced and seated as a guest of the lodge.

Deputy President Winifred Jones, wearing a formal of chardreuse brocade and orchids and carrying a flower covered fan of orchid tulle and satin ribbon, was escorted to a seat of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil C. Cribbs, 2440 W. 256th street, Sunday not only celebrated Mother's Day but was also an observance of the birthday of their daughter, Mrs. R. W. Perry of Torrance.

Mrs. Cribbs served a delicious friend chicken dinner complete with a decorated birthday cake. Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cribbs of Redondo Beach, parents of Mr. Cribbs; Mr. and Mrs. Al Charland and daughter, Sharon of Lynwood; Clifford Feeney of San Pedro; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Perry of Torrance and the hosts.

Two tables were piled high with gifts for the president and marshal. Dainty open-faced sandwiches, home-made cookies, punch and coffee were served. Dancing was enjoyed.

FROM EL CENTRO

D. R. Snow spent a week end with his family at 218 Androo avenue. Mr. Snow presently expects to move his family to El Centro where he is employed.
